Elect! Great news!!!

Thank you Pam Carstea for announcing the March birthdays and Kiwanis Anniversaries.
Thank you Sherrie C. and Pat R. for starting our meetings off with prayer the past two weeks.
Roger F. had $$$ for a wonderful trip with Janice to San Juan.
Skip A. had $$$ for the Spartans getting further than the 1st Round.
Jim S. had $$$ for a better Summer than forecasted and he asked for prayers for UKRAINE.
Al H. had $$$ for Ray S., who's either the Bravest guy in the room, or the craziest!
Sue C. had a fine for Ray because he confused clockwise from counter-clock wise. (In Ray's defense, we found out later that his song sheets were different than ours).
Roger F. had a SAD $ - no corned beef.
Sue C. had $$$ - her dental practice is officially sold.
Sherrie C. had $$$ for some good news, she's getting a new Knee on April 27.
Renea, Sherrie and Peggie all had $$$ for spending the first Saturday in March at our Spring Divisional.
We welcomed back Warren and Linda Hartley from their 2 months in Florida.
Renea C. had $$$ because our club had an Interclub with Garden City. They are a Hoot!
Al H. fined Warren for coming back with no Tan.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY to those who Believe!!! We didn't get the Corned Beef & cabbage (that was last week), but we had Ray Scoboria who passed out song sheets and entertained us. Thank you, Ray!!! Other Leprechauns included: James & Rosemarie S., Robert & Michelle M., Tom G., Skip A. & Peggie P., Roger F., Rosa S. and Jim R. "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling, sure they'll steal your heart away".

Clockwise: One of the many leadership training rooms for the key club members; Renea matched the table cloths; Sherry C. helped in the no-sew hat project; Rosa S. greeted the students as they came in; MI Kiwanis Executive Director Greg and Key Club Admin Audrey; lunch at the Double Tree; FHS with advisors; DHS with advisors.

On March 8, President Linda introduced our Speaker Wendell Gramlich, who presented information regarding a fantastic nation-wide program called Sleep in Heavenly Peace. They make and deliver “beds” and “bedding” for kids. Wow! Great presentation. They have a WEBSITE for more info and donations.

Please join Past Michigan District
Executive Director

Alan Dailey

in support of the work of your
Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation!

For a $250⁰⁰ donation to the
Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation
Endowment Fund, you will receive an Alan Dailey pin, but more importantly, you will forever support Al's passion for the Foundation and hospitalized children.

Al had an extraordinary Kiwanis involvement over his life. He first joined Kiwanis in 1970. Over the course of Al's professional and Kiwanis career, he was a member of six Kiwanis Clubs in Ohio, Oklahoma, and Michigan. Al served as president of four of those clubs.

While a member of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Western, it was the Foundation's good fortune to have his support. Al served as trustee from Division 10. Later he served as a Trustee at Large. Most recently, as Michigan District Executive Director, Al served as an Ex-Officio Member of the Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation Board. In all three roles, Al brought new ideas and a fresh perspective to the Foundation.

For a $250⁰⁰ contribution to the Kiwanis of Michigan Endowment Fund, you receive a Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation Al Dailey pin, MUCH MORE IMPORTANTLY, you will help carry Al's momentum forward. As we build our endowment, we assure the Kiwanis of Michigan will long serve Hospitalized Children. Your support in the memory of Alan Dailey will help sustain the Kiwanis legacy that began in 1922.
